History of Cleveland Names

1865-72 FOREST CITYS
Cleveland was known as the Forest Citys, playing in the . National Association (1871-1872) and National Amateur Association (1868-1870)

1879-84, 1887-88 BLUES
Played in the National League and American Association

1889-99 SPIDERS

The 1889 Cleveland club was comprised of so many tall and skinny players, the management decided to accent their features, and changed the name of the club to Spiders.

1901 BLUES

Referring to the bright blue uniforms worn by the team for inaugural 1901 AL season and nod to first NL club.

1902 BRONCHOS

The 1902 Cleveland players didn't like the name Bluebirds. They voted and chose the more forceful nickname Bronchos.

1903-14 NAPS

The team discarded the blue uniforms and a local daily newspaper sponsored a naming contest. "Naps" was selected in honor of Napoleon Lajoie.

1915-2021 INDIANS

Upon Lajoie leaving Cleveland for Philadelphia following the 1914 season, team officials determined a new name was in order for the 1915 season. According to The Plain Dealer of January 17, 1915, team owner Charles W. Somers invited the Cleveland baseball writers to help in the selection of a new club name. The writers solicited their readers for suggestions. Through this process the name "Cleveland Indians" was selected. "Indians" was one of the names used by the National League club of the 1890s.

The old National League club began to be referred to as the "Indians" upon the arrival of Louis Francis Sockalexis, a Penobscot Indian from Old Town, Maine, who was a member of that club in 1897.

An additional factor that may have weighed in on the name decision was the stunning 1914 World Series Champion Boston Braves, going from last place in July to World Series winners in October.

2022- GUARDIANS

The organization announced their decision to begin the process of changing from team name "Indians" on December 14, 2020, reaching a decisive conclusion on July 23, 2021. While inspired by the iconic sculptures of the Hope Memorial Bridge, the Guardians name is a reflection of the traits we, as Clevelanders, take pride in the most—fierce loyalty, unwavering support and a resolve to stand side-by-side through thick and thin. As a team, as an organization, as citizens of Cleveland, we hope to protect and preserve all that we love about our city and neighboring communities.

PROGRESSIVE FIELD

Progressive Insurance purchased the naming rights to the ballpark on January 11, 2008.

Historians are certain to identify the year 1994 as a significant time in the history of the city of Cleveland. The Gateway Sports and Entertainment Complex, consisting of Progressive Field (formerly Jacobs Field), the current home of the Guardians, and Rocket Mortgage FieldHouse, will be remembered as the crown jewel in the city's ever-changing urban landscape.

Gateway was made possible by its own 50/50 public/private partnership - through the support and cooperative efforts of the Cleveland business community, government, the Guardians, our neighbors the Cavaliers, sports fans, and most importantly, the people of Cuyahoga County.

Progressive Field is an urban ballpark in the truest sense, both architecturally and aesthetically. Built within the physical boundaries of the three main streets in downtown Cleveland (Ontario to west, Carnegie to south, and East 9th Street to the east), Progressive Field offers a fan-friendly facility featuring an intimate environment. The exposed steel design, which matches that of the many bridges on the north coast, and the vertical light towers, which match the smoke stacks of Cleveland's industrial zone and the high-rise office buildings in the city's downtown area, are just a couple of Progressive Field's architectural features that blend with Cleveland's cityscape.

Progressive Field initially opened its gates to fans on Saturday, April 2, 1994 for an exhibition game against the Pittsburgh Pirates, but the official opener occurred on Monday, April 4, 1994. Cleveland came from behind in exciting fashion to defeat the Seattle Mariners 4-3 on an 11th-inning walk-off single by Wayne Kirby. The opener included all of the pageantry of Opening Day, highlighted by President Bill Clinton throwing out the first pitch.

Two Cleveland institutions - the Cleveland Guardians and Progressive Insurance - joined forces on January 11, 2008 to help bring the excitement of championship baseball to fans everywhere. The ballpark that was tabbed as Jacobs Field in 1994 is now Progressive Field.

Progressive, a leading car, motorcycle and commercial auto insurer, partnered with the Guardians on a 16-year deal for the naming rights to the ballpark and also became the Official Auto Insurer of the Cleveland Guardians. Progressive's payments to the Guardians over the 16-year term of the agreement were expected to average approximately $3.6 million annually.

Now entering its 32nd season with an array of privately-financed structural and technological ballpark enhancements, Progressive Field has played host to the World Series on three occasions (1995, 1997 & 2016), Postseason play 14 times (1995-1999, 2001, 2007, 2013, 2016-18, 2020, 2022, 2024; - 59 home games), and the 1997 and 2019 All-Star Games. It led Major League Baseball in attendance in 2000, sold out prior to Opening Day five seasons (1996-2000), set a Major League record for consecutive sellouts with 455 and has entertained over 64 million fans during the regular season.

A three-year series of renovations from 2015-17 significantly enhanced the fan experience at Progressive Field, updating the in-park entertainment experience while re-imagining communal spaces throughout the ballpark (The Corner Bar, Kids Clubhouse, drink rail areas). Additional renovations during the 2024 and 2025 campaigns improved fan viewing areas, re-imagined the Terrace and Dugout Suite areas and renovated the home and visitors clubhouses.

The recent 15-year lease agreement agreed to during the 2021 seasons now extends the Guardians occupancy of Progressive Field to at least 2036, with the potential for 10 additional years to 2046, building upon one of the longest successful partnerships between a team and the public in all of sports. New updates began after the 2022 seasons, transforming the left field experience and Terrace Club, re-imagining the upper deck concourse, creating a larger, more engaged social space in the seating area behind home plate, and clubhouse/front office building renovations work during the next two offseasons.

The Cleveland Guardians franchise honors Frank Robinson, the first African American manager in Major League history, with the unveiling of a statue as the centerpiece of Heritage Park on May 27, 2017. CHRIS ANTONETTI
PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Now in his 27th year as a member of the Cleveland Guardians franchise, Chris Antonetti begins his tenth full season as President of Baseball Operations after being elevated to the position on October 6, 2015. The 2025 campaign will mark his 15th overseeing the club's Baseball Operations after spending five seasons as the club's Executive Vice President and General Manager from 2011-15.

Antonetti has worked with GM Mike Chernoff and teammates across the organization to build a foundation for sustained success by seeking to maximize all avenues of player acquisition and development, while also cultivating an organizational culture that supports continual learning and growth.

Chris guided a reshaping of Cleveland's Major League club prior to the 2013 campaign, which began with the hiring of two-time World Series champion Terry Francona as manager and continued with the transition to Stephen Vogt as skipper in 2024. In the 12 years that have followed, Cleveland has posted the American League's 2nd-best record (.551, 1013-826) – 3rd-best in the Majors overall – highlighted most notably by five A.L. Central titles (2016-18, 2022, 2024) and seven MLB Postseason appearances that have seen the organization advance to the 2013 A.L. Wild Card Game, 2016 World Series, 2017 A.L. Division Series, 2018 A.L. Division Series, 2020 Wild Card Series, 2022 A.L. Division Series and 2024 A.L. Championship Series. Over the last 12 seasons beginning with 2013, Cleveland has played a combined total of just 27 regular season games outside of Postseason contention, including only 8 games through 2020. That stretch began with an eight-year span (2013-20) that saw Cleveland post eight consecutive winning seasons and the A.L.'s best record by a six-win margin (.565, 673-519). Cleveland was one of only four MLB teams – two in the A.L. - with eight straight winning seasons from 2013-20 in what was the longest such streak for the franchise since 1994-2001 (8). In recognition of recent organizational accomplishments, Antonetti was named 2016 Executive of the Year by Baseball America following the club's World Series run and 2017 Executive of the Year by Sporting News after Cleveland achieved its third 100-win campaign (102-60) in the now 124-year history of the franchise; Antonetti was named Sporting News Executive of the Year again in 2022, as the youngest roster in MLB came within one win of advancing to the A.L. Championship Series.

Over a nine-year period from 2002-10, Chris assisted with significant rebuilding efforts as both Assistant GM (January 2002) and, later, Vice President of Baseball Operations (March 2007) that were rewarded when Cleveland led Major League Baseball in wins and advanced to the 2007 A.L. Championship Series. He originally joined the Guardians organization prior to the 1999 season as an assistant in the Baseball Operations Department and was promoted to Director of Major League Operations in August 2001.

Chris began his career in professional baseball in the summer of 1997 as an intern with the Montreal Expos in West Palm Beach, FL. He was later hired as Assistant Director of Player Development with the Expos in November 1997 and served in that position until joining the Cleveland staff.

Antonetti graduated magna cum laude from Georgetown University in 1996 with a degree in Business Administration and earned a master's degree from the University of Massachusetts in Sport Management the following year. At Georgetown, he was a student manager for the men's basketball team for one-and-a-half years under John Thompson, Jr. Chris currently serves on the MLB Club Executive Committee for The Players Alliance, which was formed in 2020.

GUARDS POST

Played football as a freshman in high school and was a wide receiver and outside linebacker. Played two years but then broke his wrist and surgery, ending his football career.

Favorite hobbies are going to the beach and playing video games. Listens to Led Zeppelin and Red Hot Chili Peppers due to his parents' influence as a child. First concert was the Rolling Stones.

Studied sociology at UC Santa Barbara and is still working on finishing his degree. Did not receive a scholarship until his junior year. He would have gone into law enforcement like his Dad if he was not playing baseball.

MLB debut was one of the best days of his life because it was also his 23rd birthday. Got the news in Gwinnett, GA when Steve Karsay called him in his office to go over video. Chris Tremie then walked in and was like "look at who is in the video". Then Shane realized the footage was from the Twins and told him he was going to be starting there on Thursday.

Talents include juggling and skateboarding.

- Set a club record with six straight starts with 10+ SO... Joined Bob Feller as the only other CLE OD starter w/ multiple double-digit SO games (Feller; 10 SO in 1939 & 1946)...Also joined Nolan Ryan (2), Randy Johnson (2) and Bob Gibson (2) as the only four hurlers to record 12-or-more SO in multiple OD starts, becoming the only pitcher in the Modern Era (since 1900) to accomplish the feat in consecutive OD starts (Elias).

- His 1.63 ERA was the lowest in the AL since the mound was lowered from 15 to 10-inches in 1969...122 strikeouts were also a club record over a pitcher's first 12 starts and the sixth-most in MLB history (since 1900) over a similar span, the most since Arizona's Curt Schilling in 2002 (123)...Also led the Junior Circuit in BA all'd (.167), slugging % all'd (.265) and K/9 (14.2) and ranked 2nd in IP (77.1)... 14.2 K/9 were also tops in club history among pitchers w/at least 75.0IP.

2024 CLEVELAND SEASON IN REVIEW

SEASON IN REVIEW

» Cleveland staked claim to the club's 12th AL Central Division Title in 2024, finishing the season at 92-69 (.571), the 2nd-best record in the AL, trailing only New York-AL (94-68, .580), and 6th-best record in MLB…the club only played 161 games, as the final game of the season vs. Houston was canceled due to inclement weather…the Guardians were in 1st place from April 14 to the end of the year, holding sole possession of the division's top post for all but one calendar date over that stretch (Aug. 27, T1st with KC)...the club was 41-43 since June 26 after starting the season 51-26 (.662)...went 31-14 (.689) from May 4-June 25; a stretch that included the club's season-high 9-game win streak (May 17-26)...Cleveland went 34-32 (.515) after the All-Star Break, winning 8 of its last 13, 11 of its last 18, 17 of its last 28 & 19 of its last 33 games…the Guardians officially clinched a Postseason berth on Sept. 19; secured an AL Central title on Sept. 21 (5th in 9 years) & a first-round bye on Sept. 24…the club finished the campaign 6.5G ahead of Kansas City (.531, 86-76), 6.5G ahead of Detroit (.531, 86-76), 10.5G ahead of Minnesota (.506, 82-80) & 51.5G ahead of Chicago-AL (.253, 41-121).

» Cleveland achieved its high-water mark of 25 games above .500 four times this season, last on September 25 (92-67); the club did not spend a day of the 2024 season with a record below .500...the Guardians finished .500-or-better in April (16-9), May (19-9), June (14-11), July (13-12) and September (15-10)...the club overcame a sub-.500 ledger in August (12-17).

» The Guards finished with an AL-best 50-30 (.625) record at home - 3rd in MLB behind Los Angeles-NL (.642, 52-29) & Philadelphia (.667, 54-27)...marked Cleveland's best record at home since 2016 (53-28)...finished 42-39 (.519) on the road, 6th-best in AL/12th in MLB; Cleveland opened the year winning 22 of its first 36 road games thru June 11 (22-14)...went 20-25 on road from June 12 through the end of the season (won 7 of 12 road games in Sept.)...the club was scheduled to play 40 of their last 67 tilts at home in the 2nd half; beginning Aug. 23, club was slated to play 23 of its remaining 35 games in Cleveland (19-15 record overall since 8/23).

» Cleveland ended the regular season with winning records against all 3 A.L. divisions, going 30-22 vs. the AL Central, 20-10 vs. the AL West and 18-15 vs. the AL East…finished 24-22 in Interleague play.

»Cleveland used 50 different players during the regular season, including 29 pitchers and 21 position players.

AN OCTOBER TO REMEMBER

» Cleveland reached its sixth ALCS, first since 2016, before ultimately falling to the New York Yankees four-games-to-one to conclude their season.

» Cleveland secured an ALCS berth after taking down the Detroit Tigers three-games-to-two in the ALDS...the Guardians opened up their playoff campaign with an emphatic 7-0 win in ALDS Game 1, plating 5 runs in the first inning without recording an out...however, the Guards found themselves down two-games-to-one heading into Game 4 after being shutout in games 2 and 3...Cleveland then evened the series at 2 games apiece with a 5-4 win in Detroit in Game 4, fueled by a go-ahead, pinch-hit 2-run homer from DAVID FRY in the 7th inning...the two clubs squared off for a Game 5 rubber match with a trip to the ALCS on the line at Progressive FIeld... LANE THOMAS powered Cleveland to a 7-3 victory in the contest with a grand slam off DET's Tarik Skubal...the Guards bullpen preserved the lead over 7.0 innings of work to help punch the club's ticket to the ALCS.

» The Guardians met the New York Yankees in the ALCS, however the club found itself down two-games-to-none returning to Progressive Field for Game 3...Cleveland entered the 9th inning of Game 3 down 5-3 on the brink of falling three-games-to-none in the series until JHONKENSY NOEL tied the game with a towering 2-run shot to left field, before DAVID FRY sealed the 7-5 victory with a walk off home run in the 10th inning, signaling the second time in MLB PS history that a team hit a game-tying home run in the 9th inning and a walk-off home run in extras, per Elias (2012 NYY, ALDS Game 3 vs. BAL)...however, the Yankees emerged victorious in Games 4 and 5, ending Cleveland's Postseason campaign.

VOGT OF CONFIDENCE

» After being announced as the 45th manager in franchise history on November 6, 2023, STEPHEN VOGT embarked on his first season at the helm for the Guardians in 2024…he was named skipper just two seasons following his player retirement, the first manager to do so since Larry Bowa with the 1987 Padres (per Sarah Langs).

» Vogt helped guide the club to a 92-69 record last season, becoming the 5th Cleveland skipper to win 90-or-more games in his first full season as manager, joining Terry Francona (92-70 in 2013), Charlie Manuel (90-72 in 2000), Al Lopez (93-61-1 in 1951) and Tris Speaker (98-56 in 1920)...he is the 5th manager in MLB history to steer his team to the Postseason within 2 seasons of his playing career (excluding player-managers), joining CAL's Jim Fregosi (1979), NYY's Yogi Berra (1964), SF's Al Dark (1962) and PHI's Pat Moran (1915), per Sarah Langs/Elias.

» Vogt kept Cleveland consistent throughout his inaugural season at the helm…he opened up the campaign with an Opening Day victory at Oakland, where he spent six seasons of his playing career, becoming the 15th Cleveland manager to begin his Cleveland career on Opening Day with a win…through 50 games, the Guardians were 33-17 (.660), marking the 2nd-best start by a Cleveland manager through his first 50 games in franchise history, trailing only Joe Birmingham (36-14, 1912-13)...through 100 games, Vogt owned a 60-40 (.600) record, tied for the 4th-best start by a Cleveland manager through 100 decisions in club history, and best since Al Lopez (61-39) in 1951, per Elias.

CLEVELAND GUARDIANS HALL OF FAME

The Cleveland Guardians Hall of Fame, baseball's oldest team hall of fame, was established in 1951 to recognize those players who achieved greatness in a Cleveland uniform. Selected by a committee consisting of baseball historians, writers, broadcasters and executives, inductees must have been active at least three seasons for Cleveland and be retired at least one year. It consists of 47 alumni.

In 2009, the organization established the Distinguished Hall of Fame to honor those non-uniformed personnel whose contributions made a significant impact on the fortunes of the franchise.

Sandy Alomar (1990-2000) – C Inducted in 2009

Set club record for home runs by a catcher (91) as the team leader during the most exciting decade in team history. The six-time All-Star led Cleveland to five consecutive (1995-99) A.L. Central Division titles. He won the 1990 A.L. Rookie of the Year Award and a Gold Glove after being acquired from San Diego. Following several injury-marred years, he had his best season in 1997: he homered and was MVP of the All-Star Game in Cleveland, batted .324 with 21 homers and 83 RBI to lead the club to its second World Series in two years and had five homers and 19 RBI in the 1997 Postseason.

Earl Averill (1929-39) – OF Inducted in 1951

The "Earl of Snohomish" was the third player to have their number retired (#3) by the club (1975). His 226 home runs with Cleveland was a club record until 1996. The six-time A.L. All-Star is Cleveland's all-time leader in runs (1,154), triples (121), RBI (1,084), total bases (3,200) and extra-base hits (724). He had a .322 average with 1,903 hits in 1,509 games for the Indians and hit .378 (A.L.-best 232 hits) in 1936. He was elected to National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1975.

Dynamic talent and personality became fan favorite by leading team from 105 losses in 1991 to World Series in 1995. Three-time A.L. BEST OWNERSHIP START

The Guardians have never finished first in the first year of a new ownership. The Dolan ownership was only the second in club history to debut with a second place finish. Cleveland finished second in 1953 under the new ownership group with Myron H. "Mike" Wilson, Jr. as its president.

NEGRO LEAGUERS WHO PLAYED WITH CLEVELAND

No team brought more players from Negro League baseball to Major League Baseball than Cleveland. Beginning with Larry Doby in 1947, 15 former Negro Leaguers began careers with Cleveland, concluding with Joe Caffie who debuted for Cleveland on September 19, 1956. In alphabetical order, the Negro Leaguers to debut with Cleveland are Walt Bond, Caffie, Doby, Luke Easter, Billy Harrell, Dave Hoskins, Sam Jones, Minnie Minoso, Satchel Paige, Dave Pope, Larry Raines, Jose Santiago, Harry Simpson, Al Smith, and Quincy Trouppe.

GOLD AT SECOND, SHORT, AND THIRD

With 3 Gold Glove infielders in 2000 (Robbie Alomar, Omar Vizquel, and Travis Fryman), Cleveland joined a select circle. Only one other franchise has had the Gold Glove winners at second base, shortstop, and third base in the same season. In 1969 and 1971, the Orioles captured Gold Gloves at all three positions (Second Baseman Dave Johnson, Third Baseman Brooks Robinson, Shortstop Mark Belanger) and did so again from 1973-75 (Second Baseman Bobby Grich, Robinson, Belanger).

GOLDEN '22

In 2022, the Cleveland Guardians earned four Gold Gloves (Shane Bieber, Myles Straw, Steven Kwan, Andrés Giménez), setting a club record. Marked the first time an AL club garnered four awards since the 2003 Seattle Mariners (St. Louis netted five in 2021) and just the second since 1976. Overall, the Guardians are the eighth American League team to net four Rawlings Gold Glove Awards in the same season since its inception in 1957. Cleveland's previous club record of three came in 2000 (see above).

CONSECUTIVE WINNING SEASONS

Only once has Cleveland had a stretch of winning seasons longer than the run of eight years from 1994-2001 again, 2013-2020. Cleveland had a winning record for 10 consecutive seasons from 1947 through 1956.

THE WINNINGEST DECADE

Cleveland won 904 games during the 1950s (1950-1959), the winningest decade in club history. Cleveland's 823 wins in the 1990s (1990-1999) were one win short of matching the 1930s (1930-1939) as the second winningest decade in franchise history.

CLEVELAND ALL-STAR REVIEW

TOP THREE ALL-STAR CROWDS

72,086 at Cleveland Stadium on August 9, 1981
69,831 at Cleveland Stadium on July 8, 1935

GAME ONE AT CLEVELAND STADIUM - July 8, 1935, American League 4, National League 1

A crowd of 69,831 - the largest throng to see an All-Star Game (until 1981 in Cleveland) - packed the lakefront Stadium for just the third Mid-Summer Classic in history. The partial American League crowd was thrilled to a 4-1 junior circuit victory, the A.L.'s third straight All-Star win.

Jimmy Foxx belted a two-run homer in the first inning, and the American Leaguers coasted to the win as Lefty Gomez and Mel Harder baffled the National League hitters.

GAME TWO AT CLEVELAND STADIUM - July 13, 1954, American League 11, National League 9

In a spectacular slugfest that set All-Star marks for runs and hits by the two clubs, the American League edged the National, 11-9. The affair produced six home runs, including three by the A.L. Cleveland All-Stars. Al Rosen clubbed a pair of homers, while he and his Cleveland teammates, Bobby Avila and Larry Doby, combined for eight RBI.

The 1954 matchup was a wild seesaw contest that saw the lead change six times before the A.L. pulled out the 11-9 win with a three-run rally in the eighth. Ironically, it was Nellie Fox's broken-bat single over second base with the bases loaded in the eighth that provided the margin of victory.

GAME THREE AT CLEVELAND STADIUM - July 9, 1963, National League 5, American League 3

After four years as a double feature, the All-Star Game went to a single performance and saw the National League utilize its speed and gain its first Cleveland Stadium win, 5-3.

Willie Mays was easily the game's outstanding performer, going 1-for-3 with two RBI, two runs scored, two stolen bases, a walk and the game's most scintillating catch. 44,160 fans saw the action.

GAME FOUR AT CLEVELAND STADIUM - August 9, 1981, National League 5, American League 4

An all-time record All-Star Game crowd of 72,086 welcomed back baseball from the 50-day players strike and saw the National League edge the American, 5-4. The 72,086 fans gave Cleveland the top three crowds in All-Star history.

Gary Carter clubbed two home runs, including a seventh inning solo shot to put the National Leaguers ahead to stay. Cleveland's Lenny Barker faced just six batters in his two innings of work, striking out one.

GAME FIVE AT JACOBS FIELD - July 8, 1997, American League 3, National League 1

Cleveland hosts the 68th Mid-Summer Classic for a fifth time as Sandy Alomar hit a two-out, two-run homer off SF LHP Shawn Estes in the 7th inning, breaking a 1-1 tie. Alomar sent 44,945 fans home happy, becoming the first Cleveland player ever to win an ASG MVP and the first player in MLB history to be named MVP in his home park.

Randy Johnson and Greg Maddux started the contest, and a total of 14 pitchers were used. Edgar Martinez and Javy Lopez also homered in the game, which took just 2:36 minutes to play.

GAME SIX AT PROGRESSIVE FIELD - July 9, 2019, American League 4, National League 3

Cleveland hosts the 90th Mid-Summer Classic for a record sixth time as Shane Bieber joined Sandy Alomar as the only Cleveland All-Star Game MVP's, striking out the side in the fifth inning. Former Cleveland outfielder Michael Brantley opened the scoring with an RBI-double in the second inning and Jorge Polanco added an RBI single in the fifth. Joey Gallo tacked on the last run with a towering home run in the seventh. Brad Hand allowed a pair of runs in a dicey eighth inning and Aroldis Chapman closed it out.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

Three members of the 1948 World Champion Cleveland Indians fathered sons who later also played in the World Series. Jim Hegan's son, Mike, played for the Yankees in the 1964 World Series, Ray Boone's son, Bob, played in the 1980 World Series, and Bob Kennedy's son, Terry, played in the 1984 World Series. Ray's grandson, Bret, appeared in the 1999 World Series for the Braves.

1948 AMERICAN LEAGUE PENNANT PLAYOFF GAME

vs. BOSTON RED SOX - CLE win A.L. pennant with an 8-3 victory

The 1948 regular season came to a close with the Indians and Boston Red Sox in a first-place tie with identical records of 96-58. This necessitated the first championship playoff game in American League history and only the second playoff in Major League history.

Monday, October 4 - at Boston (AL)

Rookie southpaw Gene Bearden, pitching with just one day's rest, fired a five-hitter, enabling the Indians to advance to the World Series with an 8-3 championship playoff victory. Lou Boudreau went 4-for 4 at the plate, belting 2 home runs and scoring 3 times. Third baseman Ken Keltner had 3 hits including a homer, a double and 3 RBI. Larry Doby doubled twice and Jim Hegan drove in a run with an infield out. Second baseman Bobby Doerr had a 2-run homer for the Red Sox.

LONG TIME BETWEEN STARTS

When Dennis Martinez started in the second game for Cleveland in the 1995 World Series, he set a record for the longest time between his first and second World Series starts. His first World Series start came 16 years earlier with the Orioles in 1979. Another former Tribe pitcher, Steve Carlton, had held the record with 13 seasons between his first World Series start (with the Cardinals in 1967) and his second (with the Phillies in 1980). MISSING TWENTY

The 1995 Indians are one of just four teams in AL history to win 100 or more games without a 20-game winner. The others were the 1984 Tigers, 1941 Yankees, and 1915 Red Sox. Cleveland's win leaders in 1995 were Charles Nagy and Dennis Martinez, each with 16 wins. Nine NL teams have won 100 or more games without a 20-game winner. UNASSISTED TRIPLE PLAYS INVOLVING CLEVELAND

From 1901 until 1994, every unassisted triple play in American League history involved the Cleveland Indians. Cleveland's Neal Ball was credited with the first unassisted triple play in AL history on July 19, 1909. Three Tribe players (Frank Brower on September 14, 1923; Homer Summa on May 31, 1927; and Joe Azcue on July 29, 1968) have hit into unassisted triple plays. Cleveland's Bill Wambsganass turned the only unassisted triple play in World Series history on October 10, 1920. The first unassisted triple play in AL history not involving the Indians was on July 15, 1994 when Boston's John Valentin turned three against Minnesota.

OTHER ALL-TIME TEAMS

Several all-time Cleveland teams have been chosen over the years. In 1951, an all-time team was chosen in conjunction with the 50th anniversary of the American League. The players chosen for that team were: Hal Trosky (1B), Nap Lajoie (2B), Joe Sewell (SS), Ken Keltner (3B), Tris Speaker (OF), Earl Averill (OF), Joe Jackson (OF), Steve O'Neill (C), Cy Young (P), and Mel Harder (P). These players also comprised the first 10 inductees to the Cleveland Indians Hall of Fame.

ALL-STAR FRANCHISE

Cleveland is the only franchise to host five All-Star Games since the inception of the mid-summer classic in 1933. The San Francisco/New York Giants, Chicago White Sox, Pittsburgh Pirates, Cincinnati Reds, and Minnesota Twins/Washington Senators have all hosted the contest four times. Only two cities, New York (7) and Chicago (6) have played host to the All-Star Game more often than Cleveland.

Scored early on RBI singles from Naylor and Kwan before the Yankees got HR from Judge, Cabrera and Bader to take a 5-3 lead. Straw double and Kwan single in the 9th set up a Rosario RBI single before the Gonzalez heroics. Hentges, Enyel De Los Santos and Eli Morgan worked 4.0 innings of 1-hit relief after McKenzie started.

After a Monday rainout, season comes to an abrupt end in the Bronx. Yankees took control early against Aaron Civale (0.1IP, 2H, 3R, BB, HBP) who was making his Postseason debut, the big blow coming on a Giancarlo Stanton 3-run HR in the 1st after just 4 batters. Judge added a solo shot in the 2nd off Sam Hentges as the Guards pen allowed just 2 runs in 7.2 IP. Only run over the game for Cleveland came in the 3rd on a Ramírez sac fly off Nestor Cortes. Guardians out hit New York, 44-28, for the series but were out homered, 9-3.

GUARDIANS BROADCAST HISTORY

The early days of baseball play-by-play broadcasting in Cleveland were highlighted by change. Broadcasting legend Tom Manning, known for his field announcing at League Park, was heard over radio station WTAM from 1929-31 covering most home games. Ellis Vander Pyl started the 1932 season on WHK, but was quickly replaced by another broadcasting legend, former Tribe player Jack Graney. For the next decade, when Tribe baseball was on the air, Graney was at the mike. His noteworthy partners included Gil Gibbons, Pinky Hunter and Lou Henry. In 1945, no Cleveland baseball broadcasts were heard because of radio network commitments. Permanent radio play-by-play of Guardians games was established in 1946 when Bill Veeck purchased the team. Before the sale, no games were broadcast in 1946. Soon after the Veeck purchase, four stations carried the Tribe game of June 28, 1946 (Graney and Bob Neal on WGAR, Earl Harper on WJW, Don Campbell on WHK, and Manning on WTAM).

BROADCASTERS AND WRITERS HONORED BY THE NBHOF

The equivalent of Hall of Fame induction for broadcasters and sportswriters is the Ford C. Frick Award and the J. G. Taylor Spink Award, respectively. Four individuals have been honored for their coverage of the Guardians. Tribe play-by-play voices Jimmy Dudley (1997), Jack Graney (2022) and Tom Hamilton (2025) have received the Frick award. Gordon Cobbledick (1977), Hal Lebovitz (2000), Sheldon Ocker (2018) have been honored with the Spink award.

THE FIRST TELECAST

The first local telecast of an Guardians' game took place on May 15, 1948 as Cleveland met the White Sox in an afternoon game at Cleveland Municipal Stadium. The game was telecast on WEWS-TV, Cleveland's only TV station at the time. The announcer was Van Patrick.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

FIRST-YEAR PLAYER DRAFT

Major League clubs meet once a year for the purpose of drafting high school, college and junior college eligible players. High school players become eligible following completion of their senior year or after withdrawing from and remaining out of school for at least 365 days; college players become eligible following completion of their junior or senior academic years or if they are at least 21 years old (within 45 days of the completion of the draft) and between school years; and junior college players become eligible following their freshmen or sophomore years.

Selection of a player in the first-year player draft (July 17-19, 2022) entitles the club to the exclusive right of negotiation with that player through August 1 at 5PM ET, the signing deadline, for all draft picks other than college seniors (or other players who have utilized all of their NCAA eligibility) for whom the club has the exclusive right of negotiation for approximately one year.

If a first or second round draft pick (or a free agent compensation pick between the first and second rounds) does not sign by the July 12 signing deadline, the selecting club receives the subsequent pick in the following year's draft.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS

A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he had a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues; or 2) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a Major League club or clubs during the period of a 26-player limit (excluding time in the military service and time on the disabled list).

SAVE RULE

Rule 10.19 – The official scorer shall credit a pitcher with a save when such pitcher meets all four of the following conditions 1) he is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; and 2) he is not the winning pitcher; and 3) he is credited with at least 1/3 of an inning pitched; and 4) he satisfies one of the following conditions: a) enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and b) pitches for at least one inning, c) enters the game, regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, or at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces); or d) pitches for at least three innings.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE

- Is credited for each day a player appears on an active roster or Major League disabled or suspended list.
- In the case of a player called up from the Minor Leagues, is credited beginning with the date he physically reports.
- In the case of a Major League player who is traded and reports in the normal course, service is not interrupted.
- In the case of a Major League player sent down to the Minor Leagues, is credited through the date of the assignment.
- In the case of a player who is unconditionally released, is credited through the date waivers are requested.
- In the case of the player designated for release or assignment (MLR 2), is credited after the designation, through the date of the actual assignment or the request for unconditional release waivers.
- For a player who appears on his club's opening day roster, is credited as of the earliest scheduled opener, without regard to the actual opening date of his own club.
- Is credited at the rate of 172 days per "year," though the season is actually 183 days long
- Is not credited during any period or periods of optional assignment totaling 20 days or more during a single season.

MAJOR LEAGUE ROSTER LIMITS

The Major League active roster is limited to 26 players from opening day through August 31 except in the case of a doubleheader. Beginning in 2012, roster limits were expanded to 26 for any doubleheader except for a rescheduled doubleheader when it occurs on the day after the canceled game or a doubleheader in which one game is the continuation of a suspended game. The active roster limit is 28 players from September 1 through the end of season.

BATTING-PITCHING QUALIFICATIONS

To qualify for the American League batting championship, a player must have 502 or more plate appearances. (3.1 for each of the 162 scheduled games.) Pitchers must work 162 or more innings to qualify for the earned run average title.

DEFINITION OF A NIGHT GAME

Any game scheduled to start after 5:01PM will be considered a night game. Twi-night doubleheaders shall be included in doubleheader statistics and shall be considered two night games for single-admission doubleheaders starting after 4:00PM. When afternoon and night games are played on the same date with separate admissions, the games shall be day and night and count as single games.

CONSECUTIVE GAME HITTING STREAKS

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

HOW TO FIGURE

BATTING AVERAGE

Divide the total number of hits collected by a player by the total number of at-bats (i.e.Player A is 12-for-40 or .300).

SLUGGING PERCENTAGE

Divide the number of total bases by the total number of at-bats (i.e. Player A's 12 hits include six singles (6), one double (2), two triples (6) and three home runs (12) for 26 total bases in 40 at bats and a .650 slugging percentage).

EARNED RUN AVERAGE

The total number of earned runs allowed by a pitcher is divided by the total number of innings pitched and then multiplied by nine for his per game average (i.e. Pitcher B has allowed 12 earned runs in 45 innings of work for a 2.40 ERA).

FIELDING AVERAGE

The sum of putouts and assists is divided by the sum of putouts, assists and errors (i.e. Player C has made 16 putouts and 24 assists and two errors. That's 40 putouts and assists divided by 42 chances for a fielding average of .952).

WON-LOST PERCENTAGE

Divide the number of victories by the total number of games played (i.e. 22 wins and 18 losses produce a winning percentage of .550).

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE

The sum of hits plus total bases on balls plus hit-by-pitches is divided by the sum of at-bats plus total bases on balls, hit-by-pitches and sacrifice flies (Does not include being awarded first base on interference or obstruction).

MAGIC NUMBER

Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

OPS

OPS equals On-Base Percentage plus Slugging Percentage. OPS is a simple way to get an overall summary of a batter's production. It combines the two most important factors in offense - reaching base (OBP) and advancing runners (SLG), and as a result it tracks with very closely with runs scored, better than using just OBP or SLG by itself.

OTHER ALL-TIME TEAMS

Several all-time Guardians teams have been chosen over the years. In 1951, an all-time team was chosen in conjunction with the 50th anniversary of the American League.The players chosen for that team were: Hal Trosky (1B), Nap Lajoie (2B), Joe Sewell (SS), Ken Keltner (3B), Tris Speaker (OF), Earl Averill (OF), Joe Jackson (OF), Steve O'Neill (C), Cy Young (P), and Mel Harder (P). These players also comprised the first 10 inductees to the Cleveland Guardians Hall of Fame.
